League Format 2025-2026

As agreed at the league Annual General Meeting on Tuesday 8th July, the league format shall remain unchanged with 7 teams in each division.

It was agreed that two teams would be relegated from Division 1 and two teams promoted from Division 2.

Teams shall play each other home and away (12 matches).

A cup/plate competition shall supplement the league, with the format remaining unchanged from last season.

A new league rulebook was introduced at the AGM, teams are requested to read the document ahead of the new season - particularly Section D, which has all the information regarding rearranging fixtures.

The creation of this document has been no mean feat, with some difficult challenges to negotiation and overcome.

Thanks

LUL Competitions Secretary

How were the fixtures compiled?

Formulating the fixtures for 2025-2026 has been the hardest season yet. We've spent 30+ hours on this task over the last few weeks. There are a number of parameters we had to work within:

- maintaining, as close as possible, a H/A routine. This has proven very hard to achieve this season - impossible in fact.
- avoiding clashes with GFSN competitions. We were unable to do this on some occasions, but we have provided some alternatives.
- trying not to give two teams from the same club a home fixture on the same day.
- avoiding long-standing tournaments
- other minor factors.

I'm really not happy with the fixtures!

We will never be able to please everybody, and as mentioned above, this was a very difficult task this year. Reach out if you're unhappy and the league will try it's best to help.

What's the deal with the GFSN?

The GFSN have three separate competitions; the League, Cup, and Shield. A number of our LUL teams play in all three competitions, whilst others only play in some.

The GFSN do not to hold any of their competitions over the same weekend.

This has a major impact on when we can schedule our fixtures. The GFSN created their calendar without consultation with the LUL.

Why do we have fixtures on Easter weekend, Bank Holiday weekend, Mother's Day... and why does my club have no fixtures in [x] month?

The GFSN scheduled their weekends outside of these dates. Despite a Zoom meeting where we requested some lee-way, they are staying with their calendar.

If your club has no fixtures during a month, that's because the parameters and constraints proved impossible to give you a fixture, and for that, we apologise. However remember that rearrangements may still occur.

Why are fixtures "unconfirmed" for March April, and May?

For the first time ever, we've made the decision to monitor the league progress and revise fixtures for the final three months of the season.

We will monitor weather postponements and the progress of teams in the various LUL and GFSN cup competitions through the winter.

We will revise fixtures purely to ensure a fair and balanced end-of-season finale.

What's the Cup format this season?

It will be exactly the same as last season. 16 teams we hope (LUL + Falcons + TRUK) will enter. Round 1 will see the victors progress to the Cup QFs, whilst the losers move into the Plate QF's.

The Cup R1 draw will be made in August.

Cup/Plate SF weekend

Please note, Cup/Plate semi-finals weekend will take place over Saturday and Sunday 14/15 March.
